Hi Suryadevi,

We feel great pleasure in recognizing and accepting your resignation as a Software Test Engineer at Techdeva Infotech.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation for your dedication and contributions during your tenure with us, and we understand that you have chosen to pursue new career opportunities.

The last day of your employment will be May 03, 2024. It is our pleasure to wish you the best for your future venture.

Your professionalism and dedication to the organization since February 01, 2023 cannot be forgotten.

You will be asked to return any company property or assets in your possession by the end of your last working day as part of the exit process including the clearance of any outstanding dues or obligations.

Our HR department is available to assist you with any future document needs or references.

We express our gratitude for your service and hope you achieve success in your future venture!
